I am writing to tell you what a benefit your CN Factor has been to me. When I was I had breast cancer that had already spread to my liver I was in despair. The prognosis was poor and the treatment was very aggressive. CN Factor kept me strong so I could finish treatment and have now been disease free for over one year. Thank you for all your help.

My mother, at age 84, after a period of months during which she had become very frail was diagnosed with lymphoma. Not only was I fearful of this disease, my thought was "how will she ever get through chemo therapy when she's so weak already"? I learned of your product CN Factor from a friend who said it would help. This has been a miracle in returning her strength before treatment began and allowing her to keep up. The tests have shown a complete response and we pray for to her continue this way. She will stay on this for good, thank you so much for this product.

CN Factor: Test results by Japanese doctors - see attached pictures -

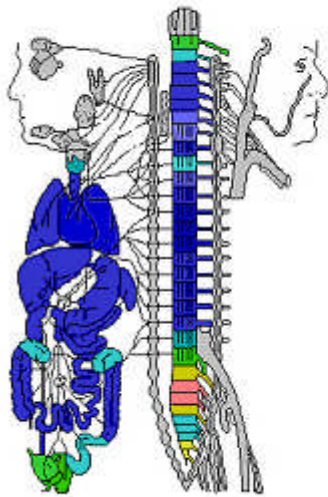

It has also been proved for those with low COQ10 in the bodies, COQ10 level moved up to normal levels after 8 weeks usage of CN Factor.

1) Base

Fatigue Measure System called AMSAT, developed by Russian scientists and manufactured in Germany was used. Fatigue level is measured by blood stream. and this test showed that fatigue was reduced tremendously after 8 weeks usage of CN Factor. Blue color indicates fatigue and yellow indicates non-fatigue.

after taking CN Factor for 8 weeks

Shows non-fatigue

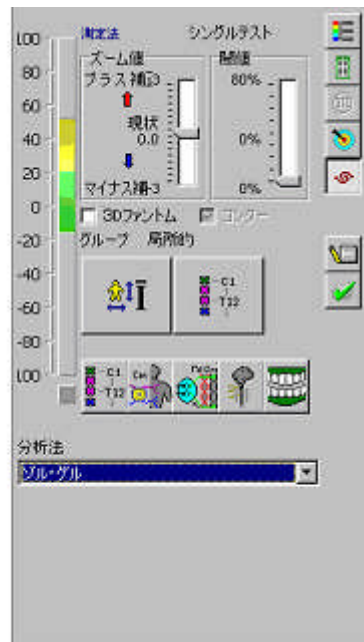

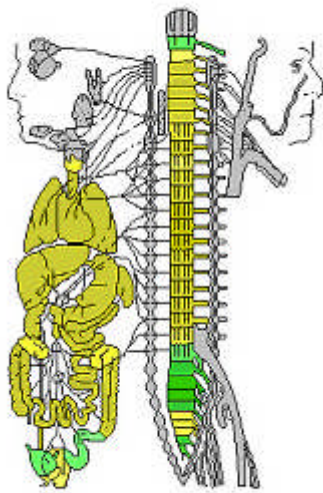

2)SoI and gel

Also measured by AMSAT. The pictures shows hardness and softness of the organs.
Yellow indicates hardness on organs and green indicates the organs are healthy and functioning properly. When the organs are soft and work properly, they are relatively free of illness. We can see 8 weeks usage of this CN Factor softened the organs drastically.
